This general depiction of a portion of Las Campanas Santa Fe is based on the approved Master Plan, as amended, and the subdivision plats recorded with the County of Santa Fe, certain aspects of which are not shown on this depiction. The Master Plan is subject to change, including but not limited to changes in lot sizes, number, of lots and densities and the size, location or existence of recreation or common area elements from time to time in the future. Not all structures are depicted on this Master Plan. Any services and amenities indicated as "proposed" on the plan are conceptual in nature and the depiction of such services and amenities hereon should not be construed as a promise of a representation that the developer will commence building or complete such services or amenities. Commencement of building and the timing of completion are subject to a variety of circumstances. Ownership and uses of adjoining lands are subject to change, and description of that ownership is not a representation that such land will or will not be developed. Any lot or parcel boundary lines depicted may not be accurate and should be verified on the recorded survey plats.
